Critical Thinking in Montessori Classroom

Lower elementary students learned about persuasive writing! They wrote about which donut flavor is the best and why. They followed the 5 features that make writing persuasive.

- Introduction and thesis.
- Opposing and qualifying ideas.
- Strong evidence in support of the claim.
- Style and tone of language.
- A compelling conclusion.

Can Preschool Children
Learn Critical Thinking Skills?

Laying the foundation for critical thinking early on is essential for children to become independent thinkers and problem solvers.

Summer of Fun: Session II

Ice Cream Day

What better way to beat the heat than ice cream? Our students stayed cool and made their own ice cream bowls last Friday.

Oak Canyon Nature Center

We had our first field trip outing since the beginning of COVID! Our students took a bus ride to Oak Canyon Nature Center in Anaheim for a nature walk! They walked hiking trails, saw birds, and trees all while breathing in the fresh air. You can view the full photo album here.
